February 2-3, 2023 • Treasure Island Resort & Casino

Designed for business owners and electrical professionals. We've assembled a team of experts to help you navigate upcoming challenges in the electrical industry. Plus we have a Special Guest, Joe Schmit, KSTP! Joe will be walking us through the day, providing insight between guest speakers and entertaining us along the way.

Thursday, February 2 (7:30am-5pm) & Friday, February 3 (8am-noon)

Recruiting & Training the Next Generation (Panel Discussion)

Polly Friendshuh (Dunwoody), Andrew Jennen (M State Wadena), Brian Schelkoph (Anoka Tech), and Jill Stewart-Kellar (916 Schools).

Electrical Violation Investigations

Shawn O'Neil, MN DLI. Learn (and avoid) frequent violations; and how to file complaints.

Subcontractor Liability

Federated Insurance. The risk for subcontractors is higher than it has ever been, what should you look for in contracts?

Plus a SOLUTIONS HALL

We are bringing in Electrical Association-endorsed vendors who can help electrical contractors with business needs.

Inflation Reduction Act

Center for Energy & Environment. What you need to know so you are the chosen subcontractor on a job where infrastructure dollars are involved.

Economic Forecast

Ron Wirtz, Mpls Federal Reserve. Inflation, material shortages, the recession.... How can you prepare for the future in this economy?

Bowling and Networking

TI's Bowling Alley. We have rented out an area of the casino Thursday evening to bowl, mingle with other attendees and talk shop.

National Electrical Code Re-Org

Dean Hunter, MN DLI. Discussions are beginning about reorganizing the NEC into 20 chapters. Code-making panels are looking for your feedback.

Peer Contractor (Panel)

Materials, supplies, inspections. Learn from other electrical contractors how they are handling current industry issues while growing their business.

Legislative Update

Stay for the Board of Directors meeting on Friday for an update our Lobbying Team. Gain understanding of the current MN landscape and what initiatives are beginning to gain traction.
